Seniors March In Cap And Gown

In the high school procession on graduation day, eight boys and girls from Barium Springs were marking the close of their years in the Home. They had been part of Barium Springs' family for a combined total of 85 years. Graduation will mean moving on in further training, work, or study. But the campus will continue to be Home whenever they can return.

JACKIE TAYLOR of Durham hardly remembers living anywhere else. For more than fourteen years, she has been a part of the Barium family. Jackie hopes to enter some form of church work and to that end has made application to St. Andrews College for September. Her sister, Tyressa, will be a junior in high school next year.

LACY LENTZ of Albemarle is the youngest of three brothers. He hopes to enter the field of accounting and has his plans made for college in the fall.

VIRGINIA KISER of Kannapolis has one brother and sister who have already finished at Barium. She is planning to take a medical secretarial course after graduation.

HENRY HARRIS of Raleigh has enrolled at Mitchell College for a two-year business course. His younger sister, Rita, will be a sophomore next year.

NANCY JOYNER of Winston-Salem has her plans made to take a one-year business course at Woman's College in Greensboro.

HELEN SPENCER of Gastonia will make her choice between a two-year secretarial course at Mitchell College or work in her home town. A brother and sister are still in elementary school.

ELVA MEDLIN of Maxton plans to enter nurses' training and hopes to be accepted at the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. A sister and two brothers in elementary school will continue at Barium.

BEVERLY HYDE of Pinetops has made her plans to enter Presbyterian Hospital for nurses' training in September. A younger brother and sister will still be at Barium Springs.

UNDER THE STEEPLE

By Rev. Hugh B. Carter, Jr.

It is always good to see a fellow take his responsibility seriously and perform his duties faithfully and cheerfully. This is what Lacy Lentz has done as President of the Senior High Fellowship during the past twelve months. Lacy had not served on the Council previous to his election as President. He came in cold, so to speak. But he warmed up to his office immediately and has offered wise leadership during his term of office. Needless to say, such an officer never misses a meeting, is never late, and goes the limit in setting an example for his group to follow. Such is the record of our modest outgoing President. We salute Lacy Lentz, confident that he will continue to render a dedicated service to Christ and His Church in the days ahead.

We are proud too of Sharon Rogers and Kathy Jo Smith who have recently earned awards for reciting from memory the Catechisms of our Church. Sharon, a Fifth Grader, has learned the long Westminster Shorter Catechism, and Kathy Jo, who is in the Third Grade has memorized the Catechism For Younger Children. Both children were instructed by their Housemother, Mrs. Louise Johnson.

Newly elected officers to the Senior High Council are Henry Bridgers, President; Walter Barefoot and Patsy Ross, Vice-Presidents; Jane Webb, Secretary; Charles McLean, Treasurer. Commission Chairmen are Wilma Bush, Edward Barefoot, Margaret Ramsey, Mary Jane Bolton, and Howard Cox. Pianist is Ellen Neill. At the Spring Rally, Jane Webb was elected as a Representative-at-large of the Presbytery's Senior High Fellowship Council.

Pioneers, at their Spring elections have named Jerry Drumm, President, Benny Joyner, Vice-President; Mae Jolly, Secretary; Jerry Wright, Program Chairman, and Connie Crews, Pianist. Group Leaders are Al Blake, Larry Edwards, Mary Tyndall, and Emily McClure.

A letter has just come through the mail from someone purporting to be a friend. I have never heard of the gentleman. He is telling me about a plan whereby I can EARN a brand new car. The method by which I may earn the car involves no hard work, of course, and he promises that I don't even have to sell anything. All I have to do is to show the new car to my friends and tell them that they can get one just as easy! Then, he slips in this word: "Once you have paid for your car you can continue to earn cash benefits." Apparently the CASH BENEFITS is supposed to make me forget the first part of the sentence where I PAY FOR the new automobile. The friendly letter closes by asking me to return my name and address and phone number on a slip of paper addressed to him on Shady Lane (How very appropriate). He will then have a third party to contact me by telephone and make an appointment with me for an interview. I leave the interview driving a brand new Ford, Chevy, or Plymouth, and arrangements will be made for my old car. I am told that all I need to take with me is a GOOD REPUTATION!

Dear Friends! Has the Christian Ministry sunk so low in the eyes of our money-mad generation? There may be just cause for thinking of the clergy as simpletons and nit-wits, but must we also be crooked clergymen, and shady simpletons? No one is in business to give away new cars. Nor does one earn new cars by the method described in the friendly letter. New cars—even used ones, are exchanged for cash and terms. Even country preachers should know this.

Seriously, it should give us all grave concern that men are so mad for money that they will cheat and lie and steal in a respectable way—respectable enough that the consumer will do it too, if it means saving a few dollars. It is assumed that anyone and every one will participate in an "under the counter" deal if it means getting the product at wholesale, or cost plus ten. Have you not read: There is none righteous, no not one. How desperately we need the Savior, all of us.

Board Of Regents Convene For Spring Session

Five Members Are Retiring

The men and women charged with the responsibility of guiding the affairs of the Home came together in the spring meeting of the Regents during the second week of May. President M. C. Benton, having been re-elected in the fall, was installed along with Mrs. Lewis Schenck of Davidson, who also had been serving as vice-president; and Mr. Charles Boney of Wilmington was elected the new secretary to succeed Mr. Charles Hagan, retiring.

The Board heard the reports of the committees and approved the Proposed Budget for the year 1961-62. This annual budget is prepared by the Finance Committee, presented to the Board and then forwarded to the Synod's Council for review in order that the askings of the Home from the Synod may be duly considered in the light of the budgets presented.

Special recognition was taken of the services of the four members who were completing their second term of four years and who were, by the rules of the Synod, ineligible for re-election. Mrs. Flake Steele, Sr., of Winston-Salem Presbytery; Mrs. Emmett Crook of Mecklenburg Presbytery; Mr. Ennis Jackson of Kings Mountain Presbytery; and Mr. Charles Hagan, Jr., of Orange Presbytery were commended for their loyal service during their eight years. Mr. Finley T. White of Granville Presbytery completing the first four-year term asked not to be re-elected.

The Board approved the plan to have Doctor Alan Keith-Lucas of the University of North Carolina do a special study of the work of the Home. He will be requested to evaluate the program as it now exists and will offer recommendations to the Board relative to the work of the Home. Also, he will be requested to suggest goals for child caring in the Synod of North Carolina during the next decade. The Board then will request special time at the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina in 1962 to present the results of this study

The members of the senior class were presented to the Board before the noon recess and joined them in the dining room for the lunch hour.

Alumni Association Stages Athletic Banquet

An annual event of great delight is the Athletic Banquet of the high school. It is a time of special recognition for those who have participated in the sports program during the school year—the boys and girls basketball teams, baseball players, and the football boys, together with the cheerleaders and band members. It is upon this occasion that the letters earned by participants in the various sports are awarded and special honors are announced.

The high light of the evening was the address by Coach Horace "Bones" McKinney of Wake Forest College. In humor and seriousness, he related the stories of interest to the high school boys and girls challenging them to make their sports program a means to an end, namely, that of developing good character and citizenship for the world in which they live.

The high school lunchroom served a fine table for the occasion. That staff is to be commended for the excellent manner in which it provides for such large groups in the school cafeteria.

Presbyterian Association Meets In Kentucky

The Children's Home of Anchorage, Kentucky, was a lovely setting for the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Association of Children's Homes. Doctor George Perkins, the Superintendent, his staff, and the boys and girls of the Home did a royal job in entertaining the people who were in attendance. President Allen Jacobs, Superintendent of the Presbyterian Home in Talladega, Alabama, arranged a fine program highlighted by the address of Doctor Alan Keith-Lucas as a part of the banquet arrangements at the Owl Creek Country Club in the evening session of the middle day.

The conference appointed a committee to study the possibility of this annual meeting being held in conjunction with the workshops at Chapel Hill. Thus combining two of the desirable meetings of the year. The Conference voted to convene in Atlanta, Georgia, next year in conjunction with the Administrative Heads of the Homes for Senior Citizens. Mr. Gordon Hanson, Secretary of the Division of Homes and Christian Welfare, particularly requested this arrangement. Miss Ann Bryan, Doctor M. A. Macdonald, and Mr. Gordon Hanson were appointed program chairman by the new president, Reverend Albert McClure, Superintendent of Barium Springs Home.

Band Practices Scheduled For Summer Months

The Director of the high school band has made arrangements to carry out a training program during the summer months. Mr. Paul Owensby has had a highly successful year with his band students. The Barium boys and girls have had only one year of participation and are eagerly looking forward to the new year and the plans that have been made. Each Monday during the summer, the junior band will have an evening session; and each Thursday the varsity band will rehearse. This summertime program will set the band in good shape for a fine take-off at the opening of school in late August. At the present time, there are thirty-six members of the two bands from Barium.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Carpenter

Funeral services for Mrs. Horace L. Carpenter, mother of Miss Rebekah Carpenter, were conducted in her home church in Rutherfordton, North Carolina. After eighty-five years of noble living in her community, Mrs. Carpenter was called Home to her reward. She and her husband, who has preceded her in death, leave behind them a record of outstanding service to the church and to the community.

Apple Crop Affected By Unusual Spring Weather

The abundance of apples of last season will not be duplicated during 1961. Mr. Woodrow Clendenin, the orchard manager, says that while there is hope of a fair peach crop that the apples have been seriously affected by the unusual weather conditions. The trees bloomed very poorly and the cold weather did much damage to the blossom and young fruit. While it is too early to estimate accurately the crop anticipated, it is certain that the amount of apples will be greatly reduced. There will be enough for apple sauce for the campus and fresh fruit for the boys and girls, but there will not be the quantity for sale that has been available for the last several seasons.

HOWARD COTTAGE

Dear Friends,

It is getting warm or should I say it is getting hot?

The swimming pool is going along just fine. They've got it painted and the lights up and it is lovely. We are going to enjoy it very much this summer.

I guess everybody is waiting for vacation to come along. I hope everyone has a wonderful time.

We, Howard Cottage girls, are anxious to live in the NEW! Howard Cottage which is going to be completed in August. It is going to be beautiful.

DOWN THE "BUNNY TRAIL"

If you tread lightly and talk softly, the pre-schoolers will let you accompany them on a walk down the "Bunny Trail"—their pet name for the little lane to the northwest of the campus. Hand in hand, they tiptoe down the trail, noticing as they go that the squirrels have heard their coming. The little animals scamper from tree to tree as though spying on their guests and, then, when convinced that their privacy has been invaded, they let go with an angry chatter. To the boys and girls, this is cause for amusement and they snicker behind their hands that their presence has brought forth such an outburst.

Stealthily, the little ones creep into the woods: then, settle down on the carpet of pine needles to listen in on the conversations of the birds. Weaving a little fantasy into their venture, the children imagine that the bird which chirps incessantly is "all-a-twitter" about the company which has come while the one that makes an occasional chirp is a dutiful child giving answer to its parent. One young fellow is the happy-go-lucky type. He sings quite cheerfully in spite of the disgruntled sound that comes from his neighbor in the adjoining tree.

The children next turn their attention to the trees and imagination is again used to probe into the secret life of the woods. One dainty lass dressed in a lacy garb of green is leaning forward as though whispering a secret to her companion; another, though, is gnarled and bent as from a heavy load; in the center stands a tall, stately oak which is labeled "the king." Off to its right is a younger member of the family which must have been filled with indecision in its early life because its lower trunk is twisted and warped. After its course was chartered, it grew straight and strong.

A breeze walks by and the trees begin to whisper among themselves. This is the cue for the boys and girls to leave, and they skip gaily down the path toward home after a most enjoyable visit in the woods.

Only five more weeks of hard study.

The fifth through the eighth grades have enjoyed going to Troutman School for the first time. It is a nice school.

Well, study hard and pass your grades.

RUMPLE HALL

Hi!

The talk over the campus now is the pool mainly and of course the new cottage. Everyone can hardly wait til we take our first dip in the pool. The Seniors will get to go first since most of them have been up here so long and have been waiting for a new pool. The new cottage is also going up fast. It grows more every day.

We have four birthdays in May. Janice Wright will be eight May 2, Linda Sue will be fourteen May 6, and Lou Anna Bridgers will be fourteen May 27. Our housemother had a birthday in April. She had a very happy one.

We've been enjoying the nice warm weather. Summer will be here before long. School will be out in a short time. Then we'll be getting ready for vacation.

See you all again next month!

Lou Anna and
The Rumple Hall Girls

School Closes And Summer Program Begins

Books have been stacked away for the duration of the summer and other interests and activities will engage the minds and bodies of the boys and girls for the next three months. It is hoped that through the use of the County Library that books will be a part of the summer program but school books have been laid away. Miss Eleanor Shull, teacher in the Troutman High School and a member of the staff last summer, will be returning to assist in recreation. She will be assisted by Mr. Dick Wray, a member of the student body at Davidson College. These two added to the present staff will enable the group to have recreation provided during the day and evening for the leisure hours.

Between the closing of the school door and its reopening in the fall, there is a tremendous amount of work to be done. Buildings are to be painted, campus kept in shape, laundry operated, meals prepared, dishes washed, cows milked, crops worked, hay cut and stored, peaches picked, watermelons grown and eaten, and many other jobs which are part of the summer program of the home.

There is also a Vacation Church School for a two-weeks' period, camp session for the senior highs and other members of the group, and a vacation time at home with relatives and friends. It will be a busy time at Barium Springs.

Cockran Awarded General Motors Scholarship

The University of North Carolina notified Herbert Cockran that he has been chosen to receive a General Motor's Scholarship in order to attend the University. The Chairman of the Committee stated in his letter that this is one of the best scholarships to be offered and would meet the needs of the student up to the sum of $1000 per year.

Herbert, known on the campus for long years as Buddy, has been at Barium Springs since 1945—the longest of any of the students graduating this year. Coming to Barium Springs with his sister at the age of two and a half years, he continued in the Home through his junior year in high school. His grades were adequate for recommendation to Phillips Exeter Academy where he was awarded an $1800 scholarship for two years and will be graduating from the Academy on June 10.

His work in high school and at Phillips Exeter together with his grade on the College Entrance Examination gives him high rating for college admission. The Admissions Committee at the University feels that Cockran's capabilities make him a good investment for a four-year term at the University.

Barium Students In College Graduation

In the academic procession at Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee, North Carolina, stood a tall Barium boy—Cromer H. Curtis. Quite a serious student during his high school days at Barium Springs, he was ready to receive his college diploma. After graduation from high school, he entered the armed forces and served his term. Then by the use of his G. I. money and his own earnings, he completed four years of college work and plans to enter the diplomatic service as a courier.

At Presbyterian Junior College, Donald Frazier and Jim Bunnell were members of the graduating class. Jim will be transferring to St. Andrews in September, and Donald will be entering North Carolina State College in Raleigh to pursue an engineering course. Lawton Rice graduates from Presbyterian College and Jim White from Chowan College.

NO MONEY IN THE BUDGET

There is no money in the budget for sending boys and girls of the Home to the camps and conferences during the summer. Each year individuals, Sunday School Classes, and other groups send in special money for this particular project. Fifteen dollars ($15) will provide for a member of the Senior High Fellowship, Pioneer Group, or Junior Group to attend camp sponsored by the presbytery at Camp Grier. Would you like to make an investment?
